

CONGRESS AND THE PRESIDENCY

❖ CONGRESS

1. Constituents – The residents of a congressional district or state.
2. Reapportionment – The assigning by Congress of congressional seats after each census. State legislatures reapportion state legislative districts.
3. Redistricting – The redrawing of congressional and other legislative district lines following the census, to accommodate population shifts and keep districts as equal as possible in population.
4. Gerrymandering – The drawing of legislative district boundaries to benefit a party, group, or incumbent.
5. Safe seat – An elected office that is predictably won by one party or the other, so the success of that party's candidate is almost taken for granted.
6. Incumbent – The current holder of the elected office.
7. Bicameralism – The principle of a two-house legislature.
8. Enumerated powers – The powers expressly given to Congress in the Constitution.
9. Speaker – The presiding officer in the House of Representatives, formally elected by the House but actually selected by the majority party.
10. Party caucus – A meeting of the members of a party in a legislative chamber to select party leaders and to develop party policy. Called a conference by the Republicans.
11. Majority leader – The legislative leader selected by the majority party who helps plan party strategy, confers with other party leaders, and tries to keep members of the party in line.
12. Minority leader – the legislative leader selected by the minority party as spokesperson for the opposition.
13. Whip – Party leader who is the liaison between the leadership and the rank-and-file in the legislature.
14. Closed rule – A procedural rule in the House of Representatives that prohibits any amendments to bills or provides that only members of the committee reporting the bill may offer amendments.
15. Open rule – A procedural rule in the House of Representatives that permits floor amendments within the overall time allocated to the bill.
16. President pro tempore – Officer of the Senate selected by the majority party to act as chair in the absence of the vice president.
17. Hold – A procedural practice in the Senate whereby a senator temporarily blocks the consideration of the bill or nomination.
18. Filibuster – A procedural practice in the Senate whereby a senator refuses to relinquish the floor and thereby delays proceedings and prevents a vote on a controversial issue.
19. Cloture – A procedure for terminating debate, especially filibusters, in the Senate.
20. Senatorial courtesy – Presidential custom of submitting the names of perspective appointees for approval to senators from the states in which the appointees are to work.
21. Standing committee – A permanent committee established in a legislature, usually focusing on a policy area.
22. Special or select committee – A congressional committee created for a specific purpose, sometimes to conduct an investigation.
23. Joint committee – A committee composed of members of both the House of Representatives and the Senate; such committees oversee the Library of Congress and conduct investigations.
24. Earmarks – Special spending projects that are set aside on behalf of individual members of Congress for their constituents.
25. Seniority rule – A legislative practice that assigns the chair of the committee or subcommittee to the member of the majority party with the longest continuous service on the committee.
26. Conference committee – Committee appointed by the presiding officers of each chamber to adjust differences on a particular bill passed by each in different form.
27. Delegate – An official who is expected to represent the views of his or her constituents even when personally holding different views; one interpretation of the role of legislator.
28. Trustee – An official who is expected to vote independently based on his or her judgment of the circumstances; one interpretation of the role of the legislator.

29. Logrolling – Mutual aid and vote trading among legislators.
30. Attentive public – Those citizens who follow public affairs closely.
31. Discharge petition – Petition that, if signed by majority of the House of Representatives' members, will pry a bill from committee and bring it to the floor for consideration.
32. Rider – A provision attached to a bill – to which it may or may not be related – in order to secure its passage or defeat.
33. Pocket veto – A veto exercised by the president after Congress has adjourned; if the president takes no action for 10 days, the bill does not become law and does not return to Congress for possible override.
34. Override – An action taken by Congress to reverse the presidential veto, requiring a two-thirds majority in each chamber.

❖THE PRESIDENCY

1. Parliamentary system – A system of government in which the legislature selects the prime minister or president.
2. Presidential ticket – The joint listing of the presidential and vice presidential candidates on the same ballot as required by the Twelfth Amendment.
3. Treaty – A formal, public agreement between the United States and one or more nations that must be approved by two thirds of the Senate.
4. Executive agreement – A formal agreement between the U.S. president and the leaders of other nations that does not require Senate approval.
5. Congressional-executive agreement – A formal agreement between a U.S. president and the leaders of other nations that acquires approval by both houses of Congress.
6. Veto – A formal decision to reject the bill passed by Congress.
7. Pocket veto – A formal decision to reject a bill passed by Congress after it adjourns – if Congress adjourns during the ten days that the president is allowed in order to sign or veto law, the president can reject the law by taking no action at all.
8. Take care clause – The constitutional requirement (in Article II, Section 3) that presidents take care that the laws are faithfully executed, even if they disagree with the purpose of those laws.
9. Inherent powers – Powers that grow out of the very existence of government.
10. State of the Union Address – The president's annual statement to Congress and the nation.
11. Impeachment – Formal accusation against a president or other public official, the first step in removal from office.
12. Executive privilege – The right to keep executive communications confidential, especially if they relate to National Security.
13. Executive orders – Formal orders issued by the president to direct action by the Federal bureaucracy.
14. Impoundment – A decision by the president not to spend money appropriated by Congress, now prohibited under Federal law.
15. Line item veto – Presidential power to strike, or remove, specific items from a spending bill without vetoing the entire package; declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court.
16. Chief of staff – The head of the White House staff.
17. Executive Office of the President – The cluster of presidential staff agencies that help the president carry out his responsibilities. Currently the office includes the Office of Management and Budget, the Council of Economic Advisers, and several other units.
18. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) – Presidential staff the agency that serves as a clearinghouse for budgetary requests and management improvements for government agencies.
19. Cabinet – Advisory council for the president consisting of the heads of the executive departments, the vice president, and a few other officials selected by the president.
20. Rally point – A rising public approval of the president that follows a crisis as Americans "rally 'round the flag" and the chief executive.
21. Mandate – A president's claim of broad public support.
22. Cycle of decreasing influence – The tendency of presidents to lose support over time.
23. Cycle of increasing effectiveness – The tendency of presidents to learn more about doing their jobs over time.