The Geneseo boys' track and field team was in action over the weekend and took 10th in the stacked field at the Rock Island Invite, while the freshman/sophomore team defended its home turf and won the Geneseo F/S Invite.

Geneseo F/S Invite

The freshman/sophomore Leafs showed what they can do April 28, winning their home invite.

"We won, and that was a very respectable field with several heavy hitting teams," said head coach Don Fredericks. "It was a very pleasant surprise, winning a tight battle. It was an overall team effort and we scored points in every single event."

Geneseo's lone first-place finish came from Joe Huffman in the freshman discus with a throw of 117-6.

In second place were Billy Hamer in the sophomore 200-meter dash with a time of 23.82 seconds and the sophomore 400-m dash at 52.69; Mark Sliz, freshman 400-m dash, 56.56 and freshman long jump, 18-4; Thomas Sigwalt, sophomore 1600-m run, 4:55.00 and sophomore 3200-m run in 10:32.50; Kyle Reiling, freshman 3200-m run, 10:41.15; Jakob Gradert, freshman pole vault, 8-6; Huffman in the freshman shot put at 40-10; and the 4x100 weightman's relay in 58.37.

Placing third were Kyle Collis in the freshman 800-m run in 2:21.81; Sliz, freshman triple jump, 33-11; Chuck Springer, freshman high jump, 4-8; and Anthony Roome, sophomore discus, 111-3.

In fourth place were Jacob Koster, freshman 100-m dash, 12.32; Isaac Silver, sophomore 100-m dash, 11.84; Anthony Luciani, freshman 200-m dash, 27.52; and John Mullin, sophomore 800-m run, 2:09.00.

Rounding out the top 5 were Reiling, freshman 1600-m run, 4:59.00; the 4x100-m relay, 47.15; 4x400-m relay, 3:54.13; 4x800-m relay, 10:10.09; and Hamer, sophomore long jump, 17-4 3/4.

"The future is looking pretty bright," said Fredericks. "I look at what we have now, the fresh/soph winning the invite and what the middle school team is accomplishing. I am very excited because we are moving toward a special time in Geneseo track and field."

Geneseo at RI Invite

At the heavy-hitting Rock Island Invite April 25, it was again Curt Jensen at the front of the Geneseo pack, sweeping the discus and shot put events.

Jensen won the shot put A event with a final toss of 53-8 and then took the discus A title with a final distance of 153-7.

"Curt certainly has the senior bug, knowing his high school days are numbered and the competitive opportunities he has left are important to him," said Fredericks. "He definitely has a tremendous gift with his physical structure and is maybe more built for the hammer throw in college. When you take God given talent and diligent work ethic, great things will happen."

"The new throws coach, Mike Harrington, is doing a phenomenal job. He is a young enthusiast coach and no question is a huge factor."

Ian Mattan was the other lone champion, placing first in pole vault C, clearing 11-0.

Rob Barton came in second in pole vault A with a final height of 13-0, while Colton Boyles took third in pole vault B at 11-0.

In fourth place were Sigwalt in 1600-meter B with a time of 4 minutes and 46.64 seconds and Carlisle Evans-Peck in 3200-m run C in 10:58.56.

Reiling came in fifth in the 3200-m run C event with a time of 10:54.00.

Geneseo placed 10th out of 16 teams.

"This meet was way beyond a quality of sectionals, and we had a decent night," said Fredericks. "We had great things happen, and we go there to get the best competition available."
