NIB 12 to be a big test for GHS

By AMY CARTON
Sports Editor

Big graduation losses piled on with injuries and athletes who have left the district has left the Geneseo boys' track and field team with some big shoes to fill.

These losses have the Leafs relying on their two returning state qualifiers and new, young talent to take on a powerhouse new conference.

"We are taking a huge hit, but we will have to have other individuals step up and only time will tell who it will be," said head coach Don Fredericks. "I am happy with their real good work ethic."

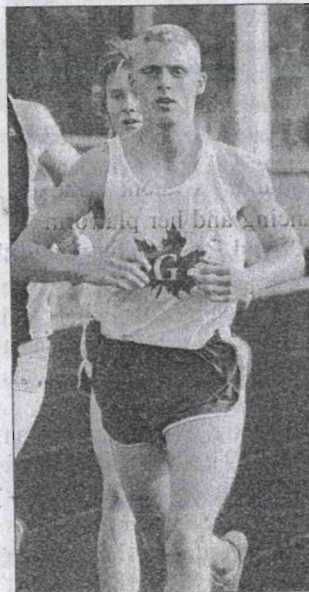

A big change this season for the Leafs will be the new Northern Illinois Big 12 Conference.

"Our conference is a lot tougher than it has been," said Fredericks. "It is a state powerhouse conference against some of the top programs in the state."

"I am looking for us to be as competitive as we can and do as well as we can. I want them to do well every meet and to prepare to peak at championship meet season time."

The Leafs will be led by eight seniors in Alain Bouquet, Billy Hamer, Josh Lawson, John Mullin, Tobi Pautz, Thomas Sigwalt, Isaac Silver and Branden Smith.

"The seniors are the second line of command after the coaches and I look for them to not only talk the talk, but walk the walk," said Fredericks.

THOMAS SIGWALT returns for his senior year.

The team newcomers are freshmen James Balleger, Chaise Blakley, Brian Bordwell, Chase Cahalan, Jacob Eaker, Tony Gatter, Sean Gelfert, Ethan Hultman, Josh

King, Mitchell Lamb, A. J. Marmion, Jared Matthews, Jordan Mielke, Justin Seeley, Ryan Webster, Seth Wilson and Griffin Welfer.

"The juniors and the rest of the team are kids who have been out before and have an idea where they can be successful event-wise and I am looking for some new discoveries," said Fredericks. "I am looking for them to not be afraid to try new things and to work hard."

"It will take time to see where people fit in."

Joining Fredericks on the coaching staff are Mike Harrington (vault/hurdles), Tom Ferguson (throws), Caleb Graff (sprints, long and triple jump), and Nick McCauley (high jump/sprints).

Despite their young age, the Leafs have some experience in all events across the board.

"There is not as much experience as I would like and there are big shoes to fill," said Fredericks. "But how successful a team will be is having people step into those roles."

"I am excited about the season and real happy with the kids we have out."

Gaining experience early on is the biggest challenge for the Leafs this season.

"My philosophy has always been to keep improving," said Fredericks. "If we improve all season long we should be pretty good. The test will be how far can we take it."

"We are in the most competitive track conference in 2A and the most competitive sectional in the state. However, we will work hard and be as competitive as we possibly can be."

Last season, the Leafs won back-to-back conference titles in the NCIC's final year. Geneseo also advanced to state in the 4x400-meter relay and the 400-m dash.
