LEAFS WIN JOHN MCCORMICK INVITATIONAL

On Tuesday, May 7th, the Leafs played host to 6 schools for the John McCormick Invitational. The meet was moved to Tuesday following the storms that rolled through on Friday and deposited almost two inches of rain in the QCA. Due to the weekday switch, several teams were unable to attend since they would get home very late on a school night. Canton, Galesburg, Metamora, and Rockford Auburn were all unable to attend. In addition, Alleman only brought a handful of competitors due to the Western Big 6 Conference Meet being on Thursday. Dixon, Erie-Prophetstown, LaSalle-Peru, Ottawa, and Riverdale did bring full teams. The weather was perfect with a daytime high of 78° and a wind of only 3-5 miles per hour. We've been waiting a long time to see weather as nice as this. The boys took advantage of the conditions and posted a plethora of Personal Bests. The team also won the title scoring a huge 361 points over 2nd place Ottawa who scored 239. Leading the team were the following Gold Medalists: Josh Beard, Chase Cahalan, David Chenoweth, Sawyer Claus, Charley Elden, Nick Fox, Tony Gatter, Dugan Kuffel, Mitchell Lamb, Jared Matthews, Jordan Mielke, Cameron Panicucci, Alex Platz, Ian Ramsey, Erik Sammons, Justin Seeley, Luke Snyder, Jordan Starkey, Dylan Waggoner, Ryan Webster, Jay Wilson, Seth Wilson, and Cameron Yeater.) The meet, originally scheduled for May 3 was canceled due to rain, was missing several top schools like Metamora and Rockford Auburn.

"Kaneland is ranked fourth in the state, and we just hope to be in the battle for second," said Fredericks. "We will have our hands full with DeKalb, and Sycamore is a really strong team. This is a really tough conference with a whole bunch of all-staters in the field so we will do the best we can."
