LEAFS ROLL IN STERLING TRIANGULAR

On Tuesday, March 12th, the Leafs traveled to Sterling's Westwood Sports Complex to participate in a Triangular with Moline and Sterling. In addition, there was also a Girls' Triangular with Alleman, Moline, and Sterling. We didn't load up the line-up to maximize point potential but instead used the meet as a workout which gave a lot of team members the chance to compete. When the dust had settled, the scores read: Genseo 74, Sterling 35, and Moline 24.

Geneseo places first at Sterling

By AMY CARTON
Sports Editor

The Geneseo boys' track and field team was in action twice this past week as the Leafs continue to gain early season feedback.

Geneseo at Sterling Triangular

The Geneseo boys' track and field team notched a first-place finish in the Sterling Triangular March 12, followed by Sterling and Moline.

"Things went very well for us," said head coach Don Fredericks. "A lot of good things happened even though we didn't load things up like we could have."

Alex Platz grabbed first place in the pole vault with a mark of 13-3; while AJ Marmion placed first in the shot put with a throw of 47-7.

Geneseo's 4x800-meter relay of David Chenoweth, Mitchell Lawson, Mitchell Lamb and Dugan Kuffel took the tape in 8 minutes and 45.16 seconds to take first place; followed by Chase Cahalan with a first-place finish in the 60-m dash in 7.47.

Justin Seeley and Jordan Mielke went one-two in the 60-m hurdles — Seeley in first with a time of 9.21 and Mielke in second at 9.27; while Jordan Starkey took first in the 800-m run in 2:04.90.

Ethan Reschke raced to a first-place finish in the 400-m dash as he crossed the finish line in 54.42; while Cahalan and Josh Beard went one-two in the 200-m dash — Cahalan in 24.65 and Beard in 24.83.

"Ethan was the story of the meet," said Fredericks. "He is a great kid and showed phenomenal potential as a freshman, but missed his sophomore and junior track seasons with injuries. I truly didn't know if he could break 58 seconds, but ran 54 seconds to take first, which is incredible. Talk about hanging in there by desire. It is amazing that he could come back from his injuries."

Geneseo swept the Top 3 spots in the 1600-m run with Chenoweth leading the way in first in 4:54.14; followed by Starkey in second at 4:59.15 and Tony Gatter, third in 5:00.33.

Placing second for Geneseo were Seeley in the long jump at 19-11 1/2, and Cahalan in the triple jump with a mark of 36-8 1/2.

Third-place finishes went to Will Daniels in the high jump as he cleared 5-10; Jay Wilson, pole vault, 12-3; Beard, long jump, 19-7; Cameron Panicucci, shot put, 42-3; Lawson, 800-m run, 2:09.76; and the 4x400-m relay A team of Sam Arndt, Mielke, Jeremy Harper and Seeley, 3:57.79.

"Jordan Starkey had a really good race in the 800, David Chenoweth is running great, and we went one-two-three in the mile and Will Daniels

Geneseo at First Chance

Invite

On March 9, the Leafs claimed 11 first-place finishes at the Sterling First Chance Invite (an ABC Meet).

"I love ABC meets because it gives three athletes the chance to be the No. 1 athlete in an event, so I think it is a win-win situation," said Fredericks. "We had two guys claim golds in the A events. Alex Platz had his hands full in the pole vault and AJ Marmion had a monster throw in the shot put, a personal best."

Leading the way for Geneseo were Mielke and Platz, both bringing home two individual first-place finishes.

Mielke won the triple jump C division with a leap of 40-1 1/2 and the 60-m hurdle C race in 9.29; while Platz nabbed firsts in the long jump C division at 18-8 and in pole vault A as he cleared 14-0.
