Leaf tracksters win Dixon invitational; set two records

"Outstanding team effort," according to Coach Don Fredericks, led the Geneseo Leaf tracksters to a first place finish at the Dixon Invitational Saturday, April 19. "We had no weak links."

According to the coach, the team has a lot of momentum heading into the final third of the season. "We're really counting on a strong local turnout for our invitational (May 2) and the conference championship (May 9)."

Saturday's victory was the first time in four years that the Leafs were victorious at the Dixon Invitational. The squad tallied 111 points with Rockford West in close contention with 108. Dixon captured third place with 102 points. The next place finisher, Belvidere, only managed 49.

Geneseo grabbed two records during the meet. Mike Lohman,

Scott Himmelman and Jeff Sandy combined their distance in the discus for 404'1 1/2". Lohman threw 142'6" while Himmelman threw 137'11" and Sandy 123'8 1/2".

The second record, in the shot put, came with a 144'2" distance. Lohman teamed up with Jim Ahart and Scott Dickens in this event. Lohman shot a 54'3" followed by Ahart with 46'3" and Dickens, 43'8".

The weightman's relay placed first with members Lohman, Sandy, Himmelman and Ahart. Times were 12.1, 12.2, 12.2 and 13.0, respectively.

Another first place finish came from the frosh-soph 400 relay squad of Maice Quayle, Todd Smith, Pat Coppejans and Steve Zobrist. Times were Quayle, 11.5, Smith and Coppejans, 11.7 and Zobrist, 11.2.
