Snook, F/S relay team leads Leafs at UT Invite

Paced by first place finishes from Andy Snook and the frosh-soph 1600 meter medley relay team of Phil Smith, Jeremiah Shoemaker, Dan Flood and Eric Misfeldt, the Geneseo boys track team placed a solid third in the United Township Kiwanis Invitational held Saturday, April 11 at the Soule Bowl in East Moline.

Teams and scores in the meet were UT (98-1/2), Rock Island (86), Geneseo (52-1/2), Moline (49-1/2), Sterling (38), Alleman (36), Rockford East (29-1/2), Pleasant Valley (seven) and Galesburg (six). Sherrard and Rockridge did not score.

Snook was clocked in a personal-best 9:41.1 in the 3200, 6.4 seconds ahead of second place Steve Cunningham of Moline. Leaf teammates Karl Taets and Andy Snyder were fourth and fifth in the 3200 with times of 10:17.1 and 10:18.7, respectively.

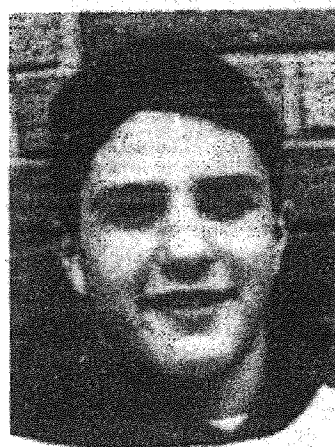

The second Geneseo victory was by the frosh-soph 1600 medley relay team of Smith, Shoemaker, Flood and Misfeldt, which turned in a time of 3:53, .5 ahead of second place Sterling.

Earning second place finishes for the Leafs were Ben Hahn in the 400 (52.4 seconds) and the 800 meter relay team of Jon Smith, Eric Newton, Jeremy Holke and Nick Sable (1:34.6).

Geneseo athletes also placed third in four events. They were Snook in the 1600 (4:41), Newton in the 300 meter low hurdles (42.5 seconds), Nate Culbertson in the shot put (49') and the 400 meter relay team of Smith, Newton, Sable and Hahn (45.0).

Fourth place finishers for the Leafs were Newton in the 110 meter high hurdles (15.4 seconds), Josh Pierce in the 800 (2:07.1) and the 1600 relay team of Sable, Holke, Pierce and Hahn (3:36.5).

Andy Snook

Finishing fifth for Geneseo were Darin Lavery in the triple jump (40'8-1/4"), Brady Rasmussen in the pole vault (12') and Misfeldt in the 800 (2:07.9).

The Leafs were slated to visit Galesburg for a triangular meet against the Silver Streaks and Alleman on Thursday, April 16. They then will compete in the Rock Island Invitational on Friday, April 24.
