First at Galesburg

Geneseo wins road triangular over host and Alleman

The Maple Leaf boys track and field team traveled to Galesburg for a triangular meet Thursday, April 11 with Alleman coming along for the ride.

Alleman finished a distant third with 23 points while Geneseo battled Galesburg for first, edging out the victory 85 to 74.

Bob Bowling won Geneseo's only gold in the field events, hurling the shot put 47'-1/2" and a 138'7" sling in the discus.

Burton Wilcox followed Bowling in the discus with a second place throw of 133'10".

Leaf runners took four first-place finishes in the track events; leading the way with two hurdle wins was Jonathan Esche.

He raced the 110 meter hurdles in 15.3 seconds and checked in at 44.6 for the 300 intermediate jumps.

Maple Leafs Nathan Price and Andy Esche recorded bronzes in hurdles. Price clocked at 26.5 in the 300 with Andy Esche taking third in the 110 meter hurdles at 17.2 seconds.

Justin Fluck's strong distance running struck gold in the 1600 and 3200 meter runs. The freshman broke the tape at 5:02.4 in the 1600 and finished the 3200 with a 10:41.4.

Steve Schaaf grabbed two second-place medals, jumping 19'2" in the long jump and dashing the 200 meter run in 23.9 seconds.

Geneseo placed second and third in four events, three field and one running.

In the 400 meter dash, freshman Mike Dumolien and junior Doug Patchin sprinted for second and third with times of 54.5 and 56.2 seconds, respectively.

Chad Frank long jumped 19'-3/4" for third next to his teammate's second place finish. He placed third in the high jump on a 5'8" leap.

Finishing second in the high jump, Heath Verstraete marked at 5'10".

Andy Esche silvered the triple jump at 36'5-1/2" while Lance Hackwith's 35'6-1/2" triple try was third.

A photo finish in the 800 meter run showed Ben Forrest's 2:13.4 time missing first by a tenth of a second.

The froph-soph Leaflets totaled 115 points, running away with 11 top finishes and the first place trophy. Alleman collected 39 points and Galesburg bottomed at 20.

Geneseo's only double individual event winner was Nick DePauw who took the 110 meter high hurdles at 18.2 and ran the 300 intermediate hurdles at 49.2.

Matt Fuelling sprinted 24.6 seconds for the 200 meter dash gold and Bart Vandersnick finished first in the 400 at 58.8.

Chris Studer paced an 11:18.2 first place time in the 3200 meter run and Mark Keplinger wheeled in at 5:08 in the 1600 for the gold.

Bjorn Myhre posted first in the 800 meter run at 2:23.8.

In field events, Geneseo's Nick Henthorn vaulted 10'6" for top honors in the pole vault.

J.J. Hazelett jumped 17'4-1/2" in the long jump and Neil Russell soared 5'6" in the high jump, completing the Leaflets' gold medal finishes.

Geneseo teamed Myhre, Vandersnick, Josh Fleming and Russell in the 3200 relay for first with a 10:24.83 time. Vandersnick, DePauw, Myhre and Brendan O'Rourke grabbed the 1600 meter relay medal at 4 minutes flat.
