A peak for R.I.'s Muskeyvalley

Sprinter surprises AA state field with second-fastest 100-meter prelim time

CHARLESTON — If Rock Island's Ranel Muskeyvalley was out to make a name for himself this weekend, he's off to a great start.

The Rocky sprinter was one of the biggest surprises of Friday's opening day of the IHSA Boys Class AA State Track and Field Meet, when, while running out of lane eight, he turned in the second-fastest time of the 100-meter dash prelims.

The senior clocked a time of 10.91 seconds, bettered only by a 10.89 from Jackie Jordan of North Chicago.

Muskeyvalley's effort will place him right in the center of the track (lane four), when the state's top sprinters get together this afternoon at O'Brien Stadium to decide who is the fastest prep runner in the state.

Saturday's ceremonies are scheduled for a noon start.

"I'm sure I got a lot of coaches leafing through their programs when I won my heat," Muskeyvalley said.

"My coaches told me running out of lane eight is no different than running out of any other lane.

"I didn't pay any attention to what else was going on around me, I just ran my race."

Muskeyvalley also anchored the Rocks to a berth in the finals of the 400 relay. Rock Island pole vaulter Tom Ryerson also survived to see Saturday while Moline's Tim McDonald advanced in both the 110 and 300 hurdles.

Ranel Muskeyvalley

After running maybe his worst race of the season at the Minooka Sectional, his 11.32 ranked him 33rd out of 38 qualifiers in the 100, Muskeyvalley thinks he could bring home all the marbles in the 100 today.

"I think I can win it," he said. "I ran really well today, but I think I can run better."

"I've run a 10.7 manual time, so if I can get out of the blocks good, I think I might have a chance."

In the 400 relay, the team of Ellery Stewart, Antwon Davis, John Austin and Muskeyvalley got the stick around in 42.65 for third in their heat and the sixth-best time overall.

"I thought we ran a really good race, probably our best of the season," Austin said. "Our handoffs were smooth, didn't look like any of us had to slow down at all."

"Last year, it seemed like the seniors helped carry us juniors to finals. This year, the two of us (Austin and Muskeyvalley) have kind of stepped up to fill that role."

Ryerson took advantage of some brotherly advice to move into the finals of the pole vault.

The senior cleared his first three heights on his initial try, but then missed on his first attempt at the 13 foot, 9 inch qualifying height.

That's when big brother Jim stepped in.

"I didn't even know he was going to make it down," said Ryerson of the two-time pole vault state medal winner. "And he brought me over to the side, where he was, and he said, 'you've got to make this, it's do or die.'"

"So I came in fast, hard, and I got over it so high. It was the best jump I've had all year."

While Ryerson will be one of 13 vaulters in the finals, the senior felt he made a statement on his qualifying jump.

"That easily could have been a 15-0 vault," he said, "and when I made it, it was like everyone was just gasped because of how much I made it by."

"So that kid who everyone thinks is going to win (Lake Park's Josh Cuttone), knows now I'm going to give him a run for his money."

Like Muskeyvalley, Moline's Tim McDonald overcame a poor lane assignment to breeze into the finals of the 300 intermediate hurdles.

Competing out of lane 2, McDonald took control of his preliminary heat early and cruised in for the win in 38.33.

Tim
McDonald

"This feels real good," said McDonald, who will take the fourth fastest time to the finals. "I got out of the blocks fast because I knew I had to make up the stagger quick, because if I did that I might catch everyone else off-guard."

"Every hurdle, I was like, 'I can't back off on it, I've got to run through.' And I just drove through the straightaway like I always do."

In the 110 hurdles, McDonald ran a 14.77 to tie Galesburg's Calvin Opgenorth for the eighth fastest time.

"I was real happy with my race in the 110s, because I was probably in the fastest heat," said McDonald, who fell in the 110s at state last year.

"Although, I'd really like to win two medals, it won't bother me if I don't. I'm just glad to be in the finals of both."

Opgenorth is one of seven finals entries for the Silver Streaks, who advanced their 400, 800 and 1600 relays.

Also advancing as individuals for Galesburg, Alfonso Pugh (long jump and 200) Pierre Woods (high jump).

Golden run for Ronel

Rocky sprinter wins 100-meter dash at state

CHARLESTON — Thomas Adams, Tim Newsome, Jerry Harris, Adam Taylor... you have company.

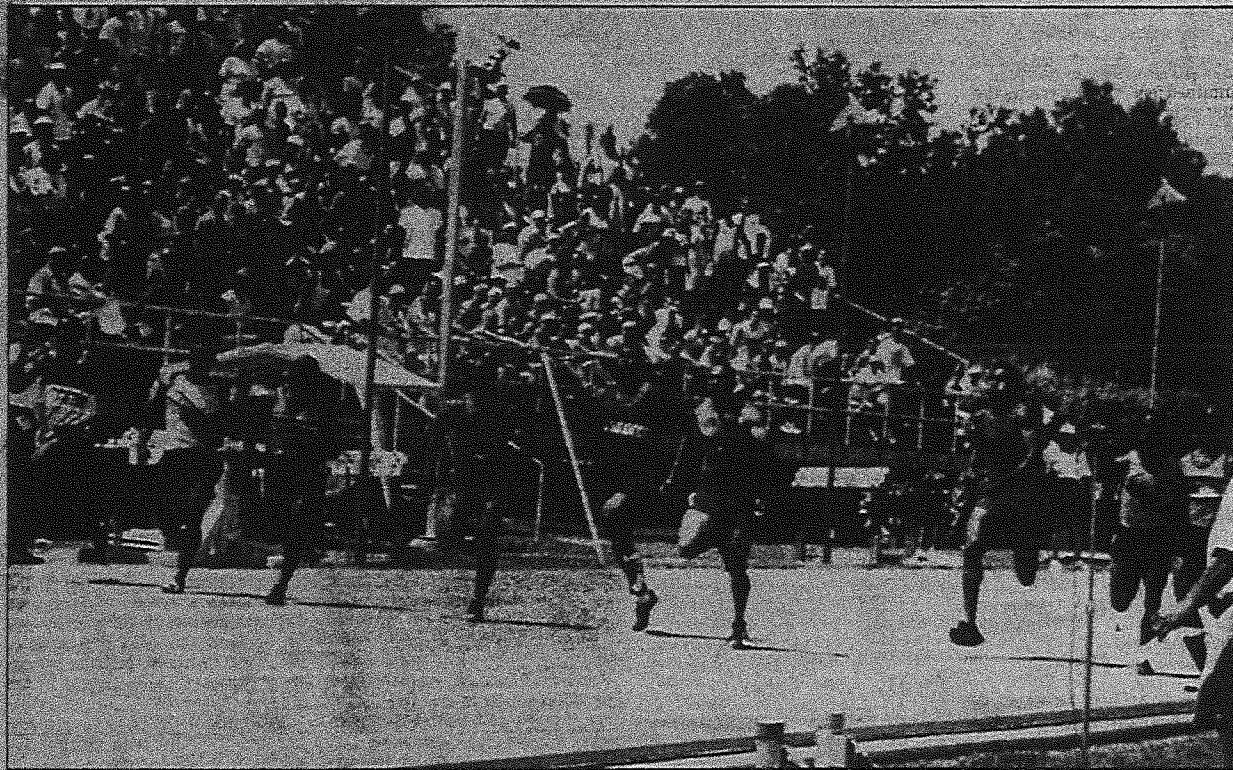

The Rock Island list of sprint legends grew by one Saturday when senior Ronel Muskeyvalley ran his way into the history book with a win in the 100-meter dash in Saturday's finals of the IHSA Class AA Boys State Track & Field Meet at Eastern Illinois University's O'Brien Stadium.

In a race that featured a blanket finish, it was Muskeyvalley's signature lean at the line that earned him the victory in 10.94 seconds. Thornwood's Bryon Ruff was the runner-up in 10.97 and his teammate, Evan Baskerville, was third in 11.03. Just two-tenths of a second separated the top eight finishers in the race.

"At first, I was not sure if I had won," Muskeyvalley said, "although, I knew I had to be close. Then, I started to hear that I might have won. I was like, shocked, but I knew in my mind that I could do it."

The victory capped an impressive weekend for Muskeyvalley. Also anchored the Rocks to a top place finish in the 400-meter relay. The team of Ellery Stewart, Antwon Davis, John Austin and Muskeyvalley ran a season-best 42.91. The first and fifth places gave Rock Island 14 points, tying it for 11th in the final team standings.

But it's in the 100 where Muskeyvalley will be remembered. The senior got a strong start out of the blocks, although he thought his start in Friday's prelims, when he ran a 10.91, was better. He seemed to be at the front of the field the entire way down the track.

Special to Argus/Dispatch by Chuck Austin

Rock Island's Ronel Muskeyvalley, fourth from right, eyes the finish line just 10 meters ahead as he wins the 100-meter dash in a heart-stopping finish Saturday at the Class AA state track meet in Charleston. Muskeyvalley's 10.94 clocking edged the 10.97 time of Thornwood's Bryon Ruff, far right, and the 11.03 of Ruff's teammate, Evan Baskerville, third from left. Just two-tenths of a second separated the top eight finishers.

"All I wanted to do was stay in front of the Thornwood guys," Muskeyvalley said. "I really don't know what's going on around me when I run. I don't hear anything and all I see is what's right in front of me." Rocks coach Ed Lillis said the senior ran just about a perfect race.

"His wonderful saving grace, yesterday and today, is that he's been closing well," he said. "The last few weeks, he had been having hard time maintaining his speed in the last third of a race, and today he held everybody off."

Lillis added that Muskeyvalley's victory was sweet redemption for a sprinter who was not expected to do much in Charleston after struggling at sectional.

PLEASE SEE ▶ RONEL, C4

▶ ROCKS

"That's an understatement when you say Ronel came down here with something to prove," said Lillis, with Muskeyvalley ranked 33rd coming out of the Minooka Sectional. "Sectional was a complete aberration and it's a credit to him he didn't let it get him down, and just went about getting ready for state."

I have to give him credit for quiet

Ronel Muskeyvalley

John Austin

persistence over the last four years. I mean, he has not said a word; he's just gone out and done what we've asked him to do. He deserves everything that he earned out there."

In the 400 relay, the Rocks were languishing near the back of the pack before strong legs by Austin and Muskeyvalley carried them to fifth, just a tick behind arch-rival Galesburg.

"I thought we ran a great race. I thought our handoffs were good," Austin said. "It's a nice way for myself and Ronel to go out as seniors and it gives Ellery and Antwon something to build on for next year."

But Muskeyvalley still had just under 11 seconds of work left after anchoring that relay.

When he was done, the senior had just earned himself a spot amongst Rock Island's special sprint fraternity.

"No, I never thought I'd be as good as them," he said of Rocky's long history of great sprinters, "but it's nice to know that now I'm being mentioned along with them."

And he said it with the smile of a champion.
