On Monday, the Leafs' freshman track team placed fourth out of six NCIC teams in a freshman-only meet hosted by Sterling.

Princeton won the meet, followed by Dixon, Sterling, the Leafs and then Kewanee and Rochelle in that order.

Geneseo didn't pick up any titles in the meet, but got individual seconds from Greg Reiling (triple jump), Augie Anderson (100), Kyle Wayne

(800) and the 3,200 relay team of Nathan Schlindwein, Jordan Weber, Andy Wallace and Tony Lyttles.

Jordan Wildermuth (3,200) and Eric Darwin (pole vault) each took thirds, as did the 1,600 relay team of Ryan Norin, Jon Kushmer, Matt Minnaert and Reiling, while Cody Leamen (shot), Justin Ogilvie (3,200), Weber (1,600) and Anderson (200) were fourth in their respective events.
