

Geneseo boys sail to a triangular victory

Geneseo's varsity boys copped eight events and stormed to a triangular victory against Dixon and Princeton. The metric meet was at Dixon on Tuesday, May 1.

Randy Russell led the charge in the field events, leaping 5.9m to win the long jump. Norm Singbush and Kevin DeBlieck tied for the high jump top spot with 6' bounds.

On the track, Scott Rink, Jeff Chad, Randy Russell and Dave Anderson won the 400m relay in 45 seconds flat. Barry Roberts won the 110 hurdles in 15.4, while Kevin DeBlieck won the 300 low hurdles in 39.84. Dave Anderson took the 100 meter dash in 11.85 and Scott Rink won the 200m dash in 23.6. Scott Rink earned his third first place ribbon of the meet, combining with Chadd, Carton and Anderson to win the 800m relay in 1:34.5.

Geneseo won with 80½ points followed by Dixon, 61½ and Princeton, 43.

The frosh-soph cindermen won their side of the meet in very convincing fashion, tallying 92 points against Dixon's 56 and Princeton's 40. The Leaflets won seven points.

Earnest, Cox, Colo and Shriver won the 440 relay. Their time was not available. The quartet also won the 800m relay in 1:40.5. Fickling won the 110m hurdles in 17.7. Shriver took the 100m dash in 12.05 and the 200m dash in 25.05.
