

POOR WEATHER RUINS THE ROCKY INVITE

LEAFS MAKE SOME NOISE BEFORE WEATHER STOPS ROCK ISLAND ABC INV.

On Friday, April 24th, the Leafs traveled to Rock Island's Public Stadium to participate in the Rock Island ABC Invitational. The sixteen team field included teams from: Alleman, Bartlett, Geneseo, Homewood-Flossmoor, Machesny Park Harlem, Moline, Naperville Central, Peoria High, Peoria Richwoods, Plainfield East, Rockford Auburn, Rockford Guilford, Rock Island, Thornton Fractional North, Thornwood, and United Township. The meet is considered to be on of the top invitationals of the weekend....STATE-WIDE.

We were really looking forward to the intense level of competition that the Rock Island ABC meet provides. Unfortunately, the weatherman had other plans for us Friday night. The last forecast I saw listed only a 20% chance of rain before 7PM and then GREAT after that. With projected winds in the 15-20 MPH range, I decided to leave our tent home and not risk having it ruined by the wind. What a great move that turned out to be. The rain started at 4:15 p.m. and never quit. At times it was light.....the wind died.....it was PERFECT for distance running. The daytime high of 60° dropped to 48° before we left (that was after almost two hours of thunder & lightning delays.) Rock Island did a great job of following the law and keeping the kids safe. They waited as long as they could before pulling the plug on the meet. Several teams had 3 HOUR bus trips home.

We had gotten off to a great start with Charley Elden running a tremendous race in the rain to nail down 3rd place in the B-3200 Meter Run. Next up was the F/S 800 Meter Medley team of Jarron Nordstrom, Adam DeYoung, Logan Weber, and Lucas Hofer. They rocked the stadium with a phenomenal 2nd place anchored by Hofer's 52 low 400 Meter Leg. WOW! Enter the return of David Chenoweth to the 3200 Meter Relay after a frustrating, injury-filled senior season to date. Rookie half-miler Nick Swartzendruber led off with a fine 2:06 PR and handed-off to Nathan Soria who blasted a 56 first 400 before hitting the wall with 200 to go. Somehow, he found his kick and salvaged a brave 2:04 and handed off to senior Distance Captain David Chenoweth who proceeded to pop a highly unexpected 2:00 Personal Best and hand off the baton to Cayson Frerichs IN THE LEAD. The field was SHOCKED....HOW WAS THIS HAPPENING?! Cayson ran a smart race to grab 1st place for the team with a solid and safe 2:05 leg. Way to go, Men. Our 400 Meter relay team of Ryan Pitra, Will Daniels, August Stamp, and Quinn Singbush placed 2nd in the 1st section of the relay before the meet was over. None of the meet results are official as the meet was cancelled. Leafs who placed in the weather-shortened affair are listed below:

1st Place: Nick Swartzendruber, Nathan Soria, David Chenoweth, Cayson Frerichs (3200 Meter Relay)

2nd Place: Ryan Pitra, Will Daniels, August Stamp, Quinn Singbush (400 Meter Relay)

2nd Place: Jarron Nordstrom, Adam DeYoung, Logan Weber, Lucas Hofer (800 Meter F/S Medley Relay)

3rd Place: Charley Elden (3200 Meter Run-B)

4th Place: Will Daniels (Long Jump-A)

5th Place: Ryan Hartsock (Long Jump-C)

Rain dampens track invites

ABOVE: Geneseo's David Chenoweth hands the baton to teammate Cayson Frerichs as the Maple Leafs compete in the 4x800 relay during Friday's Rock Island Invitational. Geneseo won the race ahead of United Township. However, after waiting out an hour-long weather delay, the meet was canceled.

BELOW: Orion's Lauren Matson makes her long jump attempt during a downpour of rain that canceled the Rockridge Invitational track meet on Friday.
