LEAFS 7TH AT ROCKY ABC INVITE

On Friday, April 20th, the Leafs traveled to Rock Island Public Stadium to participate in the 34th Annual Rock Island Boys ABC Track and Field Invitational. The weatherman gave us a beautiful day with a daytime high of 58° with light winds. It did cool down a bit as the meet progressed but considering the brutal spring weather that we have had thus far, it felt like we were in Hawaii. The tremendous field included teams from: Alleman, Bartlett, Geneseo, Homewood-Flossmoor, Machesney Park Harlem, Moline, Naperville Central, Peoria High, Plainfield East, Rock Island, Thornton Fractional North, and United Township.

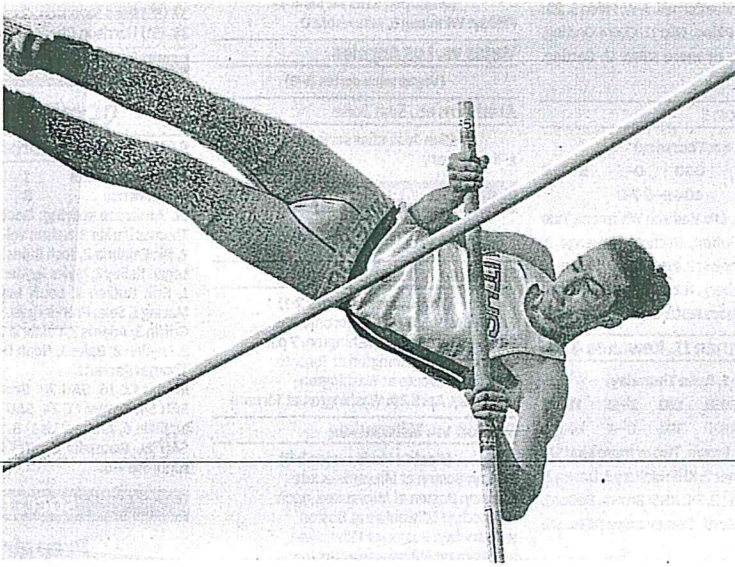

The team was led by Senior Reed Vanderheyden who claimed two "Gold Medals" in the highly competitive "A" Division by winning both the 110 Meter High Hurdles, and the 300 Meter Intermediate Hurdles and Junior Colton Pischke who captured the same events in the B Division. The 400 Meter Weightmen's relay team of Joe Stohl, Eli Allen, Tucker Ziegenhorn, and Alex McAvoy also claimed 1st place. It was a non-scored event but a thrilling one, none the less. The team ended up in 7th place, one point behind 6th place Rock Island. That was with Nick Swartzendruber only running the 400 Meter Relay and the 400, saving a bit for Saturday's Distance Night in Palatine. Also, fellow "Dynamic Duo", Reed Vanderheyden, had been out of school three days due to illness. He ran great in the 400 Meter Relay, and both hurdles. We felt it would be wise to hold him out of the 1600 Meter Relay. We were proud of everyone's efforts and feel confident as we move closer to Championship Meet Season were we hope to be at our best.

Leafs who scored points for the team via their top 6 place finish are listed below:

UT's Francis gets workout at invite United Township's Logan Francis won the A Flight of the pole vault during Friday's Rock Island Boys Track Invite at Public Schools Stadium.

ROCK ISLAND — United Township senior Logan Francis usually runs a leg of the 4x100 relay for the Panthers. On Friday night at the Rock Island Invitational, he did not, however he probably felt like he had done so several times over.

Francis started his track & field day at 4:15 p.m. with warmups in the pole vault, an event he won with a height of 13 feet. A half hour later, he went across the 100 yards of the Almquist Field turf to the long jump pit, where he placed third. Then it was back-and-forth from the pole vault and high jump, ending his night at 8:45 p.m. with a victory leap of 6-feet, 6-inches.

"I was focused, but it was a pain," he said of covering at least eight 100s to get from event to event.

Francis' double gold, along with state-qualifying-distances wins by Xavier Wickersham in the shot put (personal best 56-1/2) and discus (156-10), UT placed fourth in the 13-team field. Moline was fifth, Rock Island sixth and Geneseo seventh.

Francis says he knows of no other local athlete that combines the events that he does, especially at an elite level. His 6-6 in the high jump was a personal best and would be a state-qualifying height. His pole vault is six inches short of state requirements. His long jump is 13 inches off, but it is just his first year in that event.

Of all of his success, Francis says the pole vault excites him the most. "It's the thrill of going high," he said. "That along with all of the technical aspects; it takes so much to get a good jump."

Two others with multiple golds on the night were Rock Island's Courtney Lindsey — with a triple crown of sprints, winning the 100, 200 and 400 — and Geneseo's Reed Vanderheyden, with a sweep of the hurdles, the 110 and the 300.

Lindsey was at his fastest. His 100 time of 10.57 was just .04 off the invite record, set in 2008 by Rocky's Richard Lewis. His 200 time of 21.63 was just .13 off the invite record, set 29 years ago by Rocky's Tim Newsome.

The 400? He hadn't run that since his sophomore year, yet he ran down Geneseo's Nick Swartzendruber, a seventh-place state finisher in 2A a year ago, edging him at the finish despite being behind by 10 yards at the curve before the home stretch.

"I wanted to kick it in with 150 to go," Lindsey said, "but it turned out to be with just 50 left.

"I came in wanting the invitational's records in the 100 and 200, but I just missed both."

All three of Lindsey's dashes were state qualifying times, with his 100 and 200 being medal-worthy times.

Moline picked up gold medals in the 800 relay, with the team of Marcellus Williamson, Jabari Rogers, Fred Henderson and Boubacar Barry, with a time of 1:32.39.

Alleman's Spencer Smith, usually a staple in the winner's circle in the 1600 and 3200, just ran a leg of the Pioneers' 4x800, which placed fourth. That is because today he will be participating in elite races at the Distance Night at Palatine.
