

Varsity cross country teams take wins at Richmond Hill

Despite the fact that half of the Geneseo Cross Country team was sick with the flu, Geneseo took two of three divisions in a cross country meet Thursday night, September 18 at Richmond Hill park.

Varsity boys and girls and frosh-soph boys competed against teams from Dixon, Bettendorf, Iowa and United Township of East Moline.

Overall, Geneseo's varsity boys took their division with a 37 point final followed by Bettendorf, 45, Dixon, 51 and UT, 90. Pairing the top five finishers of Geneseo with Bettendorf, Geneseo took the lead, 24-33 as well as against UT, 19-36 and Dixon, 24-31.

Dixon's Dowell came in first place in the 2.75 mile race with a time of 14:52. Leaf Phil Walsh followed in second place, the first Geneseo place, with a time of 14:58.

Runners tallied in Geneseo's victory score, besides Walsh, were Brad Baker, fourth overall, Mike Haars, fifth, Scott Johnson, 11 and Jason VanVooren, 15.

Other varsity runners were John DeGrande, 20, Mike Morris, 22, Joe Holevoet, 23, Shawn Alexander, 25, Heath Lowe, 27, Jeff Schneider, 31, Greg Ryner, 33, Mike Johnson, 36 and Fred Freund, 39.

Geneseo's varsity girls followed suit with the boys, winning the overall meet and the individual team pairings. Overall, the Lady Leafs tallied 31 points with Bettendorf, 43, in second, UT, 81, in third place and Dixon, 101, bringing up the rear.

Pairing scores with Bettendorf, Geneseo tallied 27 to the Iowa squad's 32, UT marked 45 to Geneseo's 17 and Dixon scored 46 to a Geneseo tally of 17.

Two Bettendorf runners took first and second place overall, Roberson in a time of 11:44 and Teel in 12:22. Connie Gradert came in third overall and first for Geneseo runners with her time of 12:47.

Packing, again, played a key role in the Geneseo victory. Gradert, Lorri DeBleck and Gail Perkins placed third, fourth and fifth overall, respectively. More packing came from Kim Chapman, Michelle Landrum and Tara Zietler who placed ninth, tenth and 11 overall.

Other runners included in the 2-mile race were Kirstin Kemmis, 13, Rachel Perkins, 15, Renee Clifton, 17, Janice Kleinau, 23, Cindy Mattan, 30, Heather Clifton, 33, Gretchen Pierce, 34, Holly Zuehlke, 35, Gretchen Perkins, 39, Donna Palaski, 40, Jenny Dailey, 41 and Karmen Roehrs, who didn't finish.

United Township runners captured the leading slots for the frosh-soph race, Geneseo coming in third as a team behind UT and Bettendorf. Gates of UT took first for the 2-mile course in a time of 11:42 with his teammates, Hansen and Wilshusen, capturing the second and third place positions, respectively.

Vic Dzekunskas crossed the line in 11:55 for an eighth place finish overall and a first place finish for a Geneseo runner.

Again packing played a key part for the frosh-soph squad. Joe Holevoet finished ninth in the field while Brian Walsh came in tenth. Rounding out the five-man team score for Geneseo were Mike Bell, 12 overall and Christian Michaelson, 15.

Additional frosh-soph runners were Howard Harman, 16, John Marsh, 22, Tom Page, 24, Jim Henderson, 27, Jon Puentes, 37, John Stone, 39 and Thad Lindstrom, 40.

Team pairings show Geneseo dropped to Bettendorf, 26-29 and to UT, 21-35. Dixon, who finished overall with a 128 score, was beat in team pairings by Geneseo, 26-42.
