

Glass, Leaflets shine in Notre Dame Invitational

Bryan Glass placed fourth overall in the varsity boys race while the frosh-soph boys team took top honors in their division to highlight Geneseo's participation in the Peoria Notre Dame Invitational cross-country races held Saturday, September 15.

The races were held in Detweiler Park, site of the state cross-country meet to be held Saturday, November 3.

The performance of the meet was turned in by Glass, according to Coach Fredericks.

"Bryan just ran an outstanding race. If he can match that in November, he will make all-state for sure," noted Coach Fredericks. The top 25 finishers in the state final earn all-state honors.

Glass, who was clocked at 15:06 over the three-mile course, led the Leafs to a 20th place finish in the 34-team field. St. Charles, which is the second ranked team in the state, finished first.

Adam Boardman was the next Geneseo finisher with a time of 16:11, good for 57th place. Other Geneseo varsity runners and their times were Justin VanVooren (16:46, 111th), Mitch Pray (16:50, 117th), Gary Martin (17:23, 161st), Neil Radicic (18:05, 182nd) and Chris Walters (18:22, 196th).

Andy Snook, who normally competes on the varsity team, was nursing a hip injury and ran with the sophomores in this meet. He paced the team to first place overall.

"It was fun to see him compete against runners his own age. Snook and all of our younger runners have a bright future," noted Coach Fredericks.

Snook's winning time was 16:04. he was followed by Chad Pankey (16:50, seventh), Karl Taets (16:51, eighth), Scott Durian (17:18, 22nd), Pat Robinson (17:27, 25th) and Chad Sager (18:13, 47th).

In the junior varsity boys race, in which no team scores were kept, Geneseo racers were Andy Snyder (17:36, 22nd), Chris Pobanz (18:16, 33rd), David Farmer (18:51, 47th), Adam Radicic (18:52, 48th), Steve Miller (19:08, 61st), Adam Stokes (19:33, 76th), Jason Jolly (19:46, 81st), Matt Lotz (19:54, 87th), Kelly Smith (20:15, 95th), Jeff Patchin (20:45, 109th), Darin Lavery (20:56, 114th), Jerrett Bernahl (20:59, 117th), Dan Yarger (21:48, 125th), Vic Sebastian (22:41, 133rd) and Mike McVetty (23:27, 144th).

Michelle Eagles led the Geneseo varsity girls team to a 15th place finish. Eagles was clocked 13:06, good for 29th place. She was followed by Kristy Windy (13:31, 60th), Wendy Wassell (14:00, 89th), Suzanne Patton (14:16, 104th), Jill Minnaert (14:54, 141st), Dee Ann Olson (14:59, 144th) and Julie Ghys (15:43, 168th).

Geneseo runners in the junior varsity race were Kelli Miller (15:02, 50th), Becky Grier (15:17, 63rd), Amy Diericx (15:28, 81st), Dawn Yarger (15:42, 95th), Amy Ghys (16:05, 112th) and Jenny Wurslin (16:46, 134th).

Moline girls, Leafs' Glass take fourth

NEW TRIER — If only this was the actual event.

The Moline girls team and Geneseo's Bryan Glass were in peak-form here at the New Trier Invitational. On the same course that the state cross country finals are run on and with the state's best on hand, Moline placed fourth in the team standings for the girls 2.1-mile race and Glass finished fourth in the boys three miler.

"That was obviously a strong race," said Geneseo coach Don Frederickson. "He was seventh with a half mile to go, but he made a tremendous move and caught up to the pack."

Rick Montalvo of West Chicago won the race with a time of 14:51, while Glass crossed the finish line in 15:06. Other area individuals included Moline's Kevin Hubbard in 43rd place (15:57), Charles Embrey of United Township in 52nd (16:07) and Geneseo's Adam Boardman in 57th (16:11).

Bryan Glass

"The main thing is that a majority of the times dropped," UT boys coach Gary Phillips said of his squad.

The Moline girls, meanwhile, avoided a week full of frustration. Jenny Seuss was sick all week, Steph Dyer hadn't raced for two weeks, and last Monday Trista Lester was lost for an indefinite period of time.

Seuss returned Saturday, turned in her fastest time ever and finished 14th (12:37), while Dyer was 28th (13:04).

UT's lady harriers, also without its top runner, placed a respectable 13th in the team standings with the help of Amber Turf's ninth-place run (12:29).

"Chris Lammers had a freak accident where she slipped and suffered a cut on her ankle Friday," admitted UT girls coach Brian Mohr. "She tried to go, but it was a no-go. Had we had her we might have been right around fifth or sixth."

Also breaking the top 50 were Geneseo's Michelle Eagles in 29th, plus Moline runners Jennifer Arnett in 35th (13:13) and Ginnifer
