

Geneseo cross country teams keep running

Geneseo's Cross Country team continues its competition against the state's best this week by hitting the road for a meet in Palatine on Saturday, September 25.

Another top team in the state, Ottawa, hosted Geneseo and Sterling on Tuesday, September 21.

Andy Snyder of Geneseo led the field, covering the three-mile course in 16:05. Chris Pobanz, Geneseo (16:20) finished in third place while Jeremy Michels (16:40) rounded out the top five finishers. Sterling's Rogelio Amezola took second place and Randy Bell of Ottawa placed fourth overall.

As a team, Geneseo beat Sterling 19-41 and took Ottawa 18-45, leaving Geneseo with a 9-0 record overall.

Others scoring for Geneseo were Eric Anderson, sixth place, Ryan Carter, seventh, Eric Misfeldt, eighth and Joe Loftus, 12th.

At the junior varsity level, Leaf Chris Farmer took the overall title, covering the course in 12:54. Sterling outscored Geneseo 25-30; Geneseo beat Ottawa 26-32.

Peoria's Detweiler Park, was the site of "an impressive showing" by Geneseo's team, Head Coach Mel Snook noted. On Saturday, September 18, Geneseo participated in the Notre Dame Invitational.

State powerhouses Palatine and Glenbard North were among the more than 50 schools participating in the meet which showcased some of the top A and AA cross country programs throughout Illinois.

The Geneseo varsity girls managed "a very respectable" 10th place finish. Coach Snook stated, led by freshman Molly Reade. Reade (13:20) was followed by teammates Mindy Patten (13:45), Kristy Windy (13:50) and Dawn Yarger (13:51).

Mary Stancliff (14:06), Sara Rutledge (14:07) and Smith (14:40) also registered impressive times in contributing to a strong team finish.

As a team, Geneseo scored 369 points to claim its 10th place finish. Palatine claimed the title with 40 points followed by Glenbard North, 65; Downers Grove North, 122; Carl Sandburg, 200; St. Charles, 202; Regina Dominican, 261; Sterling, 273; MacArthur, 276 and Crete-Monee, 359. A total of 34 teams finished the invitational.

In the boys division, Geneseo looked strong and registered a 13th place finish. The Leafs were led by Andy Snyder's 33rd place finish (15:55) against a talented field of the state's top runners. He was supported by teammates Eric Anderson (16:27), Jeremy Michels (16:39), Eric Misfeldt (16:49), Chris Pobanz (16:52), Ryan Carter (17:16) and Joe Loftus (18:14).

St. Charles took the title, tallying 100 team points. Conant (118) took second followed by Moline (170) in third. The remaining top 15 teams were Lake Park (213), Richwoods (216), Palatine (227), Glenbard North (244), Oswego (249), Decatur Eisenhower (263), Glenwood (272), Downers Grove North (352), MacArthur (354), Geneseo (387), Marist (391) and Danville (405). A total of 34 teams competed.

Geneseo's junior varsity teams came in with an impressive fourth place finish in the girls competition and 14th place in the boys.

Leading the strong effort for the Lady Leaflets were Jenny Terronez (14:20), Amy Gibson (14:29), Katie Lavery (14:34), Sara Verplaetse (14:41) and Molly Patten (14:51).

Others running for Geneseo were Amy Ghys (14:55), Erica Williams (14:59), Sara Terronez (15:12) and Anamika Holke (16:32).

St. Charles took the girls junior varsity division with a team score of 56. Carl Sandburg finished second with 67 followed by Downers Grove North in third with 113. Geneseo tallied 124 points for fourth place. Niles West, 125 points, rounded out the top five teams. A total of 273 runners from 21 schools competed in the invitational.

Mike Hanson (18:03) topped the list for the Leaflets followed by Jeff Michels (20:10), Dirk Wildemuth (21:03), Derek Betcher (21:27) and Adam Fleming (21:27). A field of 232 harriers fielded the event.

St. Charles claimed the top four individual positions and tallied just 17 points to take the junior varsity boys title. The remaining top 15 teams included Downers Grove North (57), Richwoods (70), Sacred Heart Griffin (150), Elmwood Park (161), Oswego (191), Lyons Township (217), Southeast (234), Conant (254), Moline (269), Stephen Decatur (290), Lanphier (308), Springfield High (343), Geneseo (423) and Maine East (455). Nineteen teams accumulated points in this division.

The boys frosh-soph team also participated in the Notre Dame Invite, finishing at 23rd. Moline claimed the title with 86 points followed by Lyons Township (119), Conant (149), MacArthur (200) and Oswego (202) in the top five. Geneseo racked up 555 points overall.

Chris Farmer (17:42) led the Geneseo frosh-soph team. Others running were David Cryder (19:00), Shane Nordstrom (19:18), Jared Thompson (19:36), Doug Patchin (20:36), Jeremy Brown (21:21) and Jason Farmer (21:32).

No team scores were kept in the open classes of the Woodruff Invitational on Saturday, September 11.

Chris Rodriguez of Waubonsie Valley completed the course in 16:20 to lead the boys open field. Joe Loftus of Geneseo was closed at 17:50 to lead the Leafs. His time earned him 21st place out of a field of nearly 180 harriers.

Others competing in Geneseo's behalf were Mike Hanson (18:13), Adam Radicic (18:14), Jeff Michels (19:44), Adam Fleming (22:02) and Dirk Wildemuth (22:02).

In the girls open it was Shannon Burke of Waubonsie Valley who claimed first, taking the tape in 13:23.

Jenny Terronez led the Lady Leafs with her time of 14:26 and a 16th place overall finish.

The Geneseo teammates continued to pack the field, sporting eight runners between the 16th and 38th positions. Finishing were Molly Patten (14:33), Katie Lavery (14:45), Amy Gibson (14:45), Sara Terronez (14:56), Amy Ghys (15:06), Sara Verplaetse (15:09) and Erica Williams (15:12). Anamika Holke also ran the course, finishing with a time of 16:33.

Geneseo was awarded 11th place on a sixth-runner tie breaker in the varsity AA team competition of the Woodruff Invite.

Hersey, 88, took first place followed by Naperville Central (108), Libertyville (131), Barrington (138), Lockport (145) Waubonsie Valley (224), Lincoln-Way (248), Metamora (278), Rock Island (298).

Centennial and Geneseo each tallied 312 points to tie for 10th place. However, Centennial's sixth runner, Heather Maxwell clocked in just at 14:14 while Geneseo's sixth runner, Sara Rutledge, crossed in 14:15, giving Centennial the edge and 10th place overall. A total of 32 teams fielded 226 harriers.

Jenny Zehr of Hersey completed the course in 12:00 to claim the title.

Leading the Lady Leafs was Molly Reade who finished in 13:16. Others competing were Mindy Patten (13:37), Kristy Windy (13:38), Dawn Yarger (13:56), Sara Rutledge (14:15), Angie Smith (14:46) and Mary Stancliff (14:53).

At the boys varsity AA competition it was Prospect who finished on top with 120 points.

Again Geneseo had to relinquish 10th place after a tie with Waubonsie Valley. Both teams tallied 341 in the five-runner scoring. Rounding out the top 10 slots were Moline (138), Richwoods (148), Fenton (167), Naperville Central (192), Bloomington (207), St. Ignatius (235), Libertyville (281) and Quincy (338).

Andy Snyder led the Leaf effort, completing the course in 15:50. Tim Broe of East Peoria led the field and took the tape in 14:59.

Other Leaf finishers were Jeremy Michels (16:34), Josh Inch (16:43), Eric Misfeldt (16:46), Eric Anderson (16:48), Chris Pobanz (17:20) and Ryan Carter (17:32).

Out of the 30-team field, Geneseo placed 21st in the frosh-soph division of the Woodruff Invitational.

Naperville Central claimed first with 123 points; Centennial, second, 149; Prospect, third, 168; Moline, fourth, 173 and Quincy, fifth, 179. Geneseo tallied 491 team points.

Mike Paull of Naperville Central claimed first place with his time of 16:33.

Leading Geneseo was Chris Farmer (17:58). Others competing were Shane Nordstrom (19:29), Jared Thompson (19:35), David Cryder (20:07), Jeremy Brown (20:17), Doug Patchin (20:53) and Jason Farmer (21:53).
