Lady Leafrosh take fourth; other three place high in Notre Dame invite

Fourth place was awarded to J. D. Darnall High School's frosh-soph harriers at the Peoria Notre Dame Invitational on Saturday, September 18.

Sixty-five teams took part in the 2.50-mile race at Detweiller Park in Peoria.

Emily Alden set the pace for the Lady Leafrosh, taking 16th overall with a time of 16:46. Jann Johnson was hot on her trail, taking 17th overall in 16:51, putting the Lady Leafrosh among the top five in the team standings.

Other Geneseo competitors were Krista Wiedenhoeft, 44th, 17:30; Emily Rowlands, 45th, 17:30 and Karin Skelton, 48th, 17:35.

"The team packing capability of this squad is really exciting," recognized Coach Don Fredericks. "We received some solid efforts from all of our girls."

Rounding out the Lady Leafrosh's field were Trista Bartz, 18:45 and Jenny Mosher, 18:59.

Though no junior varsity team placings were kept, Geneseo fielded a number of Lady Leaflets in the event.

Samantha Daily finished the course in 19:27 followed by Kristin Reagin, 20:42; Amber Cashman, 20:42 and Erika Klavon, 25:20.

Naperville North topped the team standings for the frosh-soph division, scoring 56 points. St. Charles, 64; Carl Sandburg, 88; Geneseo, 146 and Peoria Richwood, 174, complete the top five teams.

Margaret Flystra of Hinsdale Central took the tape in the frosh-soph meet in 16:07.

Geneseo's varsity girls contingent finished 36th out of 65 teams, led by Andrea Blondell.

Blondell took 138th overall with her time of 16:50. Joining her in the varsity competition were Alysa Snyder, 17:36; Kari Reagin, 18:52; Nita Prasad, 20:11 and Jody Thompson, 21:39.

Wheaton North took the team title while Schaumburg finished second; St. Charles, third; Lake Forest, fourth and Carl Sandburg, fifth place.

Victoria Jackson of Lake Forest won the individual title. No time was given.

Geneseo's varsity boys took 13th for the 65-team field while the frosh-soph came in 25th. Again, no junior varsity team standings were kept but Geneseo still fielded a number of Leaflets.

Andy Beuster set the pace for the Leafs, covering the three-mile course in 15:58 for 47th-place overall. Tim Nelson took 57th in 16:04 while Bob Ristau clocked in at 16:24 for 89th.

Bill Bean and Matt Travis rounded out Geneseo's top five varsity contingent. Bean finished at 16:36 while Travis was clocked at 16:41.

Other Leaf competitors include

Josh Franks, 17:03 and Grant Venema, 17:16.

Kyle Fluck finished 20th overall to top the Leafrosh. His time was 16:54. Kyle Lichthardt was the second Geneseo frosh-soph harrier through with a time of 17:37.

Also running were Jeremy Heaton, 18:15; Jason Rittenhouse, 20:33; Steve Loftus, 20:48; Joe Derwin, 23:57 and Gary Shaw, 24:59.

Jared Betcher was Geneseo top finisher among the junior varsity harriers, clocking in at 17:28.

Mike Stone followed suit in 18:50 with Mike Skelton next through the gate in 18:54.

Also competing were Mike Sunstrom, 19:03; Brandon Sandoval, 19:06; Mark Gleason, 19:46; Phil Mason, 20:30 and Noel Powers, 22:01.

"It was a bit warm but our guys put forth some strong efforts," noted Coach Fredericks. "We are one month away from our 'biggies' and we'll be ready when it counts."

In the team standings, Schaumburg took the varsity title with Marist, Oak Park River Forest, Naperville North and Downers North rounding out the top five.

Tim Keller of West Chicago won the individual title.

Adam Solomon of Springfield clocked in at 15:47 to win the frosh-soph title.

Taking the top five team slots were Neuqua Valley, 159; Carl Sandburg, 190; Moline, 245; Champaign Centennial, 270 and West Chicago, 296. Geneseo finished with 530 points.
