

Cross Country teams win at Kewanee

The Geneseo cross country teams had some success at Kewanee last week.

In the varsity boys three-mile race, Kyle Fluck and Justin Trujillo finished one and two for the Leafs as they defeated Kewanee and LaSalle-Peru Tuesday.

Fluck had a 16:08 and Trujillo finished in 16:17.

The Leafs also took fourth and fifth place, also. Christian Rowlands and Nathan Schlindwein finished at 17:29 and 17:31, respectively.

Brad Mattan and Bill Barton finished eighth and ninth for the Leafs.

In the girls match, Rachel Wyffels won first place for Geneseo with a time of 19:40. The Leafs also had the number three through seven finishers. They were Katie Croegaert, Ashley Colo, Becky Johnson, Amanda Hoste and Allie Minnaert.

On September 28, the Leafs traveled to Sterling for the Rock River Invitational.

For the boys, Fluck finished third overall with a time of 16:01. Trujillo finished eleventh with a time of 16:28.

Schlindwein finished 39th, with a time of 17:34 and Rowlands finished at 51, with a time of 17:51. The team finished sixth in a quality field.

In the junior varsity match, Barton finished seventh and T.J. Lyttles finished 24th. David Cross placed 27th.

The team finished fourth overall.

The boys record is now 9-1 and the girls are 8-2.

The Leafs will next run at the Peoria High Invitational on Saturday, October 5 at 10:30 a.m.
