The boys and girls cross country teams performed quite well again last weekend at the 29th annual Pretzel Cross Country Invitational in Freeport.

The boys team finished fifth overall, and the girls ran to a fourth place finish as a team.

In the varsity boys race, Nathan Schlindwein led the way for Geneseo with a strong 11th place finish. Schlindwein ran a 16:33 over the three mile course.

Justin Trujillo finished right behind Schlindwein in 12th position with a time of 16:36.

Christian Rowlands had an impressive day with a spirited 17:11 good for 23rd place, and Justin Goodrich finished in 29th with a time of 17:23.

Brad Mattan was 42nd in the 75 runner field. He ran a 17:38.

Tim Holevoet was 64th with a time of 18:47, and Tony Lyttles was 71st at 20:12.

On the girls side, sophomore sensation Rachel Wyffels continued to shine, finishing second in a field of 80 runners.

Wyffels ran an astounding 18:50.

Becky Johnson was the next Leaf to finish. Johnson ran a 20:32, good for 18th spot.

Alexis Minnaert put together a solid performance with a 30th place finish at 20:52.

Katie Croegaert was next for Geneseo in 34th spot with the time of 21:02.

Erica Brenny finished 41st with a 21:15, and Kayla McVietty placed 50th with a 21:27 effort.

Megan Matyasse ran a 21:48 for 57th place to help her team finish in the top four.

Abby Winberry placed second in the girls J.V. race. She ran a wonderful 18:33 and led her team to a second place finish behind only Sterling.

Three other J.V. girls finished in the top ten as Kelli Lawrence was fifth, Sally Collis was sixth and Erin Browne finished 10th.

Justin Ogilvie was the top boys J.V. runner, finishing in 10th place with a time of 15:58.

Jon Weiser finished 11th, Andrew Fehlman came in 13th and David Cross finished 18th to lead the team to a strong finish.

The cross country teams will next compete in the NCIC conference championship meet in Rochelle on Oct. 18.
