Geneseo's Lady Leafs came in 13th overall out of 26 teams and leading the way was Joann Chenoweth, crossing the finish line in 20:10. Danielle Dewey clocked in with a time of 20:12 just behind Chenoweth, while Stephanie Kennett was close behind in 20:21. Lauren Schroeder, Eliza Cropp and Betsy Winberry were the final three Geneseo runners to finish, Schroeder in 20:57, Cropp at 22:22 and Winberry in 22:47.

"The varsity girls led the charge and performed the best," Fredericks said. "We were very proud of how they went out and attacked."

In the freshmen/sophomore girls' race, Hilary Lohman finished with a time of 23:19, followed by Mariah Carney in 27:36.

Racing for the f/s boys were Chad Ford with a time of 17:58; Carlisle Evans-Peck, 18:11; Ian Mattan, 18:27; Branden Smith, 18:48; Micah Morrill, 18:56; Adam Adams, 19:47; and Tyler Timmerman, 19:47.

Other Lady Leaf runners competing in the open race were Elaine Orendorff in 22:57; Rachel Atwell, 23:01; Katé Langdon, 23:05; and Liz Hanford, 23:49.

Those racing in the open boys' race were Greg Pemble in 20:13; Andrew Kellogg, 20:45; Chaz Augustine, 21:04; A. J. Kellogg, 21:59; Cole Barrett, 22:15; John Mullin, 22:26; Ethan Koisti, 22:58; Cameron Hodgson, 23:58; Alex Strohmeier, 24:10; Mark Morrill, 26:10; Ben Lodge, 26:20; Ryan Frink, 26:49; and Jacob Carton, 42:15.

Geneseo will compete in the NCIC cross country meet this weekend at 9:30 a.m. Oct. 13 at Hall. The freshmen/sophomore girls start at 9:30 a.m., followed by f/s boys at 10 a.m., varsity girls at 10:30 a.m., varsity boys at 11 a.m. and the combined open race at 11:30 a.m.

"(On the girls' side) Dixon has really come on and is the favorite, but that doesn't mean they will win," Fredericks said. "It will be an exciting race to watch."

"Likewise for the boys, Dixon is the team to beat and it will be a tough assignment. The boys and girls both have the goal of contending for a conference championship. We hope to see strong races from our runners and a lot of Maple Leaf pride."
