STATE BOUND

The Lady Leafs posed for a quick picture minutes after finding out they were headed to STATE.

SENIORS LEAD LADY LEAFS TO STATE WHILE THE BOYS PLACE 11TH

On Saturday, October 31st, the Leafs traveled to East Peoria's Illinois Central College for the IHSA Sectional Finals. The Peoria Metro area was hit with over 4 inches of rain in the last two days. This following a very wet fall made the conditions a "mudders delight".

The Lady Leafs toed the line with a bit on anxiety. Number 7 runner, Hilary Lohman, was unable to race with a hip injury while Number 5 Regional runner, Jenny Ford, mispacked her gear bag and forgot her spikes. Add to that the fact that Freshman number one runner, Emily Ford, wasn't feeling very well and things weren't looking too good. Picked as a bubble team at best the Lady Leafs shot off the starting line with the goal of ending an 11-year drought of state finals for the team. Senior Danielle Dewey moved into 8th place and held it the entire way earning All-Sectional Honors. Behind Dani things got interesting as Freshman Emily Ford gave the coaches the thumbs down sign just past the mile (AKA: feeling "VERY BAD".) Emily gave it everything she had but was eaten alive by the pack and drifted back into the number 7 Leaf position. Amazingly, as her teammates passed her they realized that they had to "MAN UP". Boy did they ever. Joann Chenoweth and Paige Gatter just kept moving up and roared to 13th and 14th overall. At this point the team's chances rested on Super Sub Amy Cosgrove and fellow Senior Betsy Winberry. They responded with the races of their lives and were eating up runners like crazy as they ran to 40th and 42nd places respectfully. Jenny Ford ran an amazing race in training flats considering the conditions and placed 70th overall. The "experiment (of racing in training flats) was negative". Emily Ford refused a drop out offer at two miles and gave it everything she had. After almost 4 hours of waiting for the results to be posted, the Lady Leafs learned they had qualified for the State Finals with a strong 3rd place team showing. Many opposing coaches were observed shaking their heads and heard saying, "Where in the heck did Geneseo come from?" Wait....the best is yet to come.

The boys team was also a bubble team with the odds a bit longer than the girls team. The boys got off the line very well and navigated the first mile very effectively. If the meet had been scored at the mile the Leafs would have been in the top 5 and would have qualified for the state finals. The problem was that there were still two miles to go. Thomas Sigwalt ran a magnificent race and barely missed qualifying as an individual by only 3 places with a solid 21st place finish. Not too bad for the 2nd year harrier. After that the rest of the team had a tough day and drifted backwards in the race during the last two miles. The goal was to put 5 runners in the top 50 and only Thomas was able to accomplish that goal. Kyle Reiling (55th), Carlisle Evans Peck (62nd), Jordan Starkey (72nd), and Chad Ford (117th) rounded out the Leaf scoring. Marcus Gagnon (122nd) and Branden Smith (139th) put forth strong efforts. When the dust had settled the Leafs learned that they had finished in 11th place. The bottom line is life isn't always fair. Sometimes, you fail in attaining you goal. Lick your wounds men and let this disappointment motivate you to pound out a strong winter of base in preparation for the track season. You enjoyed a wonderful season and we are proud of each and every one of you. Please support your teammates as they race in the state finals this Saturday at Detwiller Park in Peoria.

Lady Leaf runners state meet bound

For the first time since 1998, the Geneseo girls' cross country squad advanced to the IHSA State Finals as a team. The Lady Leafs earned a third-place finish at the Oct. 31 East Peoria Sectional Meet to move on to state competition.

"It was a real exciting weekend on the girls' side," said head coach Don Fredericks. "The guys were hoping to qualify, so there are some mixed emotions. I am really happy for the girls, but sad for the boys."

And while the girls took third, the Lady Leafs were not at full strength.

"Our No. 7 runner, Hilary Lohman hurt her hip and was unable to run, strike one," said Fredericks. "Jenny Ford forgot her spikes and had to run in training flats, strike two and Emily Ford was sick the day of the race, but ran anyways, strike three."

The Lady Leafs were led by senior Danielle Dewey (All-Sectional), who placed sixth with a time of 20 minutes and 5 seconds.

Fellow senior Joann Chenoweth followed not far behind in 11th place at 20:19, while sophomore Paige Gatter came in right behind Chenoweth in 12th place in 20:21.

Senior Amy Cosgrove finished 34th overall with a time of 21:13, followed by senior Betsy Winberry in 37th at 21:15.

Rounding out the Geneseo contingent were sophomore Jenny Ford in 63rd place at 22:01 and freshman Emily Ford, 110th in 24:03.

"Every Geneseo runner ended up passing

Emily, but they responded by digging deeper," said Fredericks. "This team is so close and they stepped up more than any other team I have been around. I have never seen anything like this."

In the boys' race, junior Thomas Sigwalt paced the Geneseo pack in 19th place with a time of 17:05.

Sophomore Kyle Reiling followed in 52nd at 17:36, while senior Carlisle Evans-Peck came in 59th at 17:48.

Freshman Jordan Starkey took 67th place in 17:59, while senior Chad Ford was 103rd in 18:45. Freshman Marcus Gagnon placed 108th in 18:58, while junior Branden Smith came in 124th at 19:37.

The Leafs finished 11th overall and failed to advance anyone to state.

"Thomas Sigwalt ran a really awesome race and was only three places away from qualifying," said Fredericks. "Then from there things went south and we had some guys who had some tough races."

The Lady Leafs will run at 11 a.m. Nov. 7 at Detweiller Park in Peoria at the 2009 IHSA State Cross Country Finals.

"I hope they take the experience they gained last year from being there and watching Joann and Stephanie Kennett race and use it," said Fredericks. "But I hope they realize it is just another meet, but the most important because it is the last one. I want them to have fun and there is no pressure on them."

"The state meet is hitting at the right time because the girls are running wild."
