BRINGING HOME THE BACON

Pictured are Emily Ford, Paige Gatter, Kyle Reiling, and Jordan Starkey. All four athletes earned individual medals in the powerful Woodruff Invite.

On Saturday, September 10th, the Leafs traveled to Peoria's Detweiller Park to participate in the powerful Woodruff Invitational. Considered one of the premier invitationals in the country this weekend with over 150 schools participating in the 3 division format. The meet was greeted with wonderful weather for early September with a daytime high of 78 degrees. The humidity was up there but, nevertheless, this was amazingly good weather for this time of year. I can still remember just a few years ago when the thermometer climbed over 100 degrees on the day of this meet.

On to the the Leafs and their performances. The team came into the meet battling a few cases of shin splints and some upper respiratory ailments that are common for this time of the season. Needless to say, we were far from the finished product that we are aiming for come championship season. Still, all in all, there were many positive moments to take from the meet. I love the fact that the meet administration allowed all Class A and Class AA schools to run their entire teams in one girls' and one boys' race. This allowed our open runners to enjoy a more positive experience and shortened the meets length by one hour for the Maple Leafs.

The Girls exploded off the line at 10:00 a.m. with a field of 45 teams (3 incomplete teams.) The action was hot and heavy as 502 runners jostled for position. The meet was twice as big as the state finals and a great opportunity to gain some valuable experience on the state finals course. Emily got out nicely and was in the top 10 at the mile. Paige was back in 45th at the mile with our pack of Maggie, Jessa, and Morgan somewhere around 130. In our 2nd pack were: Dani, Amber, Sarah, and two of our Katies and appeared to be moving up through the field. The rest of the team was spread out and running strong. Most of our team moved up during the last two miles led by Paige's huge move up to the top 25. I missed the last two miles of the race as I was helping attend to a girl that went down and was having a seizure. She was in no condition to be left alone until trained medical help arrived. I wish I could have seen your finishing drives. We are far from a finished product and we will only get better from here. The bottom line is YA GOTTA WANNA. We know YOU DO! 10th Place will do for now. Let's keep working hard. One of the keys to booking a date at state will be to close down the gap from Em and Paige to our 3-4-5. When we solve that, nothing will stop you. Get ready to take on Da Hills at our home invitational come Saturday. We are very proud of you, Ladies.

At 10:37 the boys race was off with 45 teams and 596 runners. It was quite a scene watching the field explode off the line at the gun. It was also pretty cool drawing the 2nd farthest starting box in the field coming out of number 53. The boxes are arched by satellite so they are all the same distance to the first turn. At the mile, Kyle and Jordan were both flying and hanging out at the back of the lead pack flirting with going sub 5. Mitchell Lawson was in "no-man's land" running solo while Sean, Mitchell Lamb, and Marcus were packed up nicely. G-Man was running solo as our 7th man with the rest of the team pretty spread out but a few team members running together. It's tough to find each other in a field this big and we need to do a better job of hooking up with our racing partners from here on in. Saturday was a good learning experience. It looked like most the team finished strong led by two team members cracking the top 20 (Kyle and Jordan.) Keep working hard and let's close down the gap from Kyle and Jordan to our 3-4-5 scorers. That will be the key to booking a ticket to state. Get ready to take on the hills at the Geneseo Invitational next Saturday. We are proud of you, Men.

GHS runners crack top 20 at invite

In a loaded field of state powerhouses, the Geneseo High School cross country teams finished in the top 20.

The girls' squad placed 10th out of 43 teams, while the boys' team came in 16th out of 47 teams.

"It was a monster field and there were a whole bunch of teams who are ranked in the state," said head coach Don Fredericks.

Emily Ford and Paige Gatter led the girls' squad, each earning medals as they placed in the top 25. Ford finished 13th with a time of 18 minutes and 45 seconds, while Gatter crossed the finish line in 24th at 19:12.

"To have two in the top 25, most teams would beg for that," said Fredericks. "It was a great start for the team. We are far from finished, but we gained some valuable experience."

Maggie Schlindwein finished in 20:24, followed by Jessa Coulter in 20:36; Amber Fobert, 20:43; Morgan Kelly, 20:49 and Dani Manna, 21:09.

Katie Lynch crossed the finish line in 21:27, while Sarah Dellett came in with a time of 21:48; Katie Puls, 21:56; Rachel Smith, 22:36; Cortney Backes, 23:12; Catie Nelson and Rori Westerlund, both came in at 23:59; Rachel Ganson, 24:06; and Hannah Johnson, 25:17.

Kyle Reiling and Jordan Starkey paced the boys' contingent, each earning medals as they placed in the top 20. Reiling came in 15th with a time of 15:41, while Starkey crossed the finish line in 20th in 15:50.

"Reiling and Starkey both had personal bests and ran real tough," said Fredericks. "All in all, to have two runners that separated themselves from the rest of the field is great."

Mitchell Lawson was the third Geneseo runner to cross the finish line with a time of 16:55, followed by Mitchell

Lamb in 17:19; Sean Lillis, 17:29; Marcus Gagnon, 17:30; and Tony Gatter, 17:57.

Dan Hanford finished in 18:05; Chaise Blakley, 18:07; Mickey Christensen, 19:17; Nolan Fassett, 19:21; Bryce Gramling, 19:23; Evan Koisti and Seth Stewart, 20:13; and Jesse Mohr, 20:40.

Sean Pemble, 22:14; Alec Damitz, 22:35; Marcus Shinn, 22:57; and Michael Neuwohner, 26:24.

"Overall, I am happy with how everyone did," said Fredericks. "The key to being successful and competitive at the conference meet is moving our pack up in our races."

The Leafs and Lady Leafs will host their annual Geneseo Invitational at 9 a.m. Sept. 17 at the Richmond Hill Cross Country Course.

"It would be great to see our kids run their fastest times ever on our home course," said Fredericks. "I hope for us to be as competitive as we can against a decent field."
