Princeton tops Geneseo in cross country meet

By Tim Pletkovich

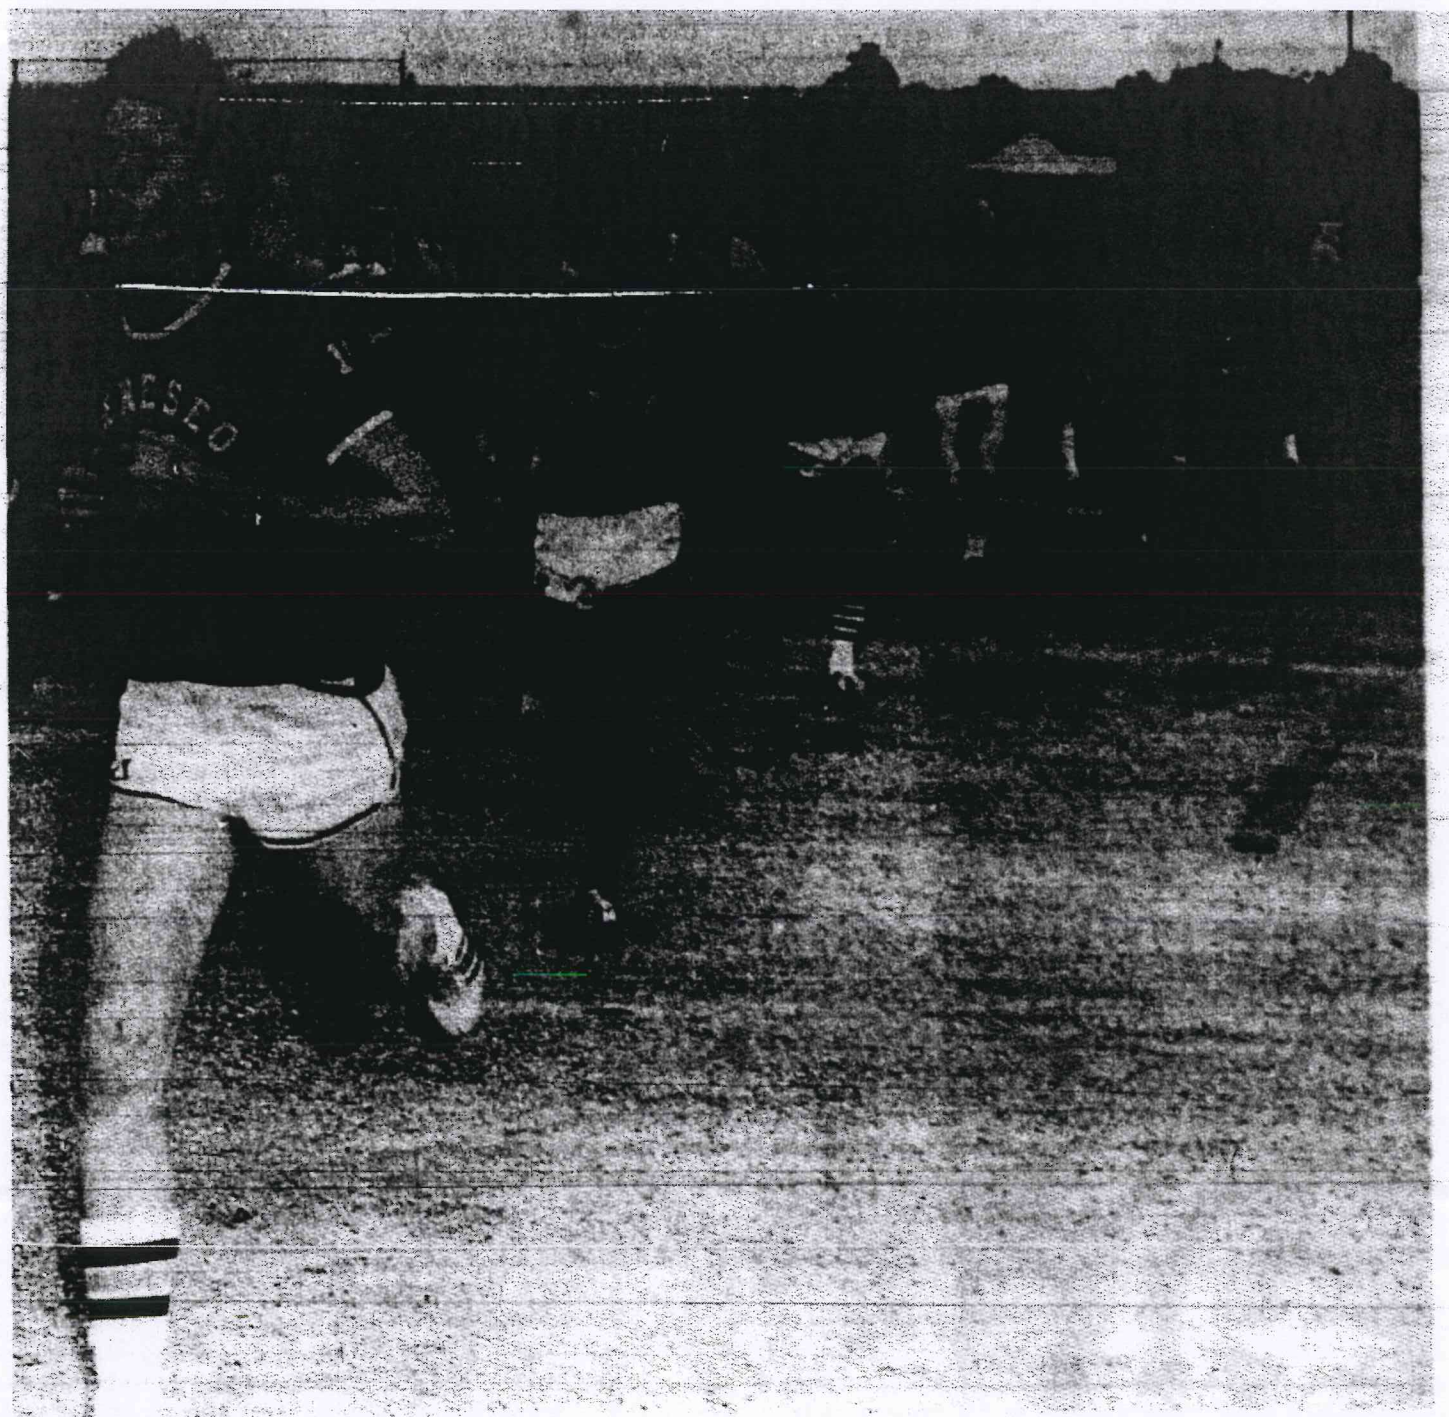

The Geneseo Cross Country team was involved in a ten team meet at Richmond Hill last Saturday.

Geneseo finished tenth in varsity competition and placed eighth out of nine teams in the frosh-soph race.

Leaf Jeff Fitzgerald placed in twenty-seventh place in varsity competition. In the frosh-soph race Ron Brummet led Geneseo runners placing nineteenth.

Princeton won the varsity meet with 69 points while East Moline finished on top in the frosh-soph division with 61 points. The first place varsity finisher was Larry Schuldt of Rock Falls. Kevin Dawson of Kewanee finished first for the frosh-soph.

Next Saturday, Geneseo will be participating in the Dixon Invitational at Dixon. The meet will begin at 10:30 a.m.

Across country

With half the pack trailing, these five Geneseo cross country thinclads circle the three-mile course.

And thinclads they were along with 72 other runners in the wintery weather meet Saturday, September 20 at Richmond Hill park.
